Amending Order in Council fixing Lighthouse Dues.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 23rd day of July, 1935.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.
WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the ninth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and published in the Gazette No. 25 of the twenty-second day of the same month, lighthouse dues were fixed in respect of ships arriving at ports in New Zealand:

And whereas it is desirable to make further provision in respect thereto:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by section two hundred and eighty-seven of the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, do hereby amend the hereinbefore-recited Order in Council by making the following provision in respect thereto:—

“Provided further that in any case where a ship, having arrived at a port and become liable for light dues in respect of such arrival, is compelled by stress of weather to put to sea and returns to that port to complete discharge or loading, such return to port shall not be deemed to be an arrival for the purposes of this Order in Council.”

A. W. MULLIGAN,
 Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.
