(L. and S. 6/5/50.)

Lands permanently reserved in the Otago and Southland Land Districts for National-park Purposes.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by the three-hundred-and-fifty-ninth section of the Land Act, 1924, it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time set apart temporarily as reserves, notwithstanding that the same may be then held under pastoral license, any Crown lands which in his opinion are required for any of the purposes in the said section mentioned :

And whereas by the three-hundred-and-sixtieth section of the said Act it is provided that land temporarily reserved under the said three-hundred-and-fifty-ninth section may, at the expiration of one month, but not later than six months, after the publication in the Gazette of notice of such temporary reservation, be permanently reserved, and that notice of such permanent reservation shall be published in the Gazette :

And whereas the land described in the Schedule hereto was by Warrant dated the first day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and published in the Gazette of the seventh day of that month, temporarily reserved under the authority of the said Act for national-park purposes :

And whereas the description of the area of 55,000 acres in the Otago Land District as set out in the Schedule to the aforesaid Warrant was amended by a Warrant dated the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and published in the Gazette of the twenty-seventh day of that month.

Now, therefore, I, George Vere Arundell, Viscount Galway, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the said Act, do hereby permanently reserve the land described in the Schedule hereto for national-park purposes for which the said land was so temporarily reserved as aforesaid.
