

called "the said Act"), did consent to the issue by the Auckland Harbour Board (hereinafter called "the said Board") of new securities in conversion of any existing securities to which the said Order applies, and did thereby make the provisions contained in the said Order in Council:

And whereas by a resolution passed and confirmed by the said Board the said Board resolved to issue new securities in conversion of the existing securities to which the said Order applies:

And whereas the public notice under subsection two of section nine of the said Act did not state the place fixed for the holding of the meeting to confirm the said resolution:

And whereas the said Board caused the notice mentioned in clause six of the said Order to be forwarded to the holder of the existing securities to which the said Order applies, but did not forward together with the said notice a copy of the said Order:

And whereas a copy of such Order was delivered to such holder not later than the date of conversion:

And whereas it is desirable to validate the proceedings aforesaid:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by section two of the Local Authorities Interest Reduction and Loans Conversion Amendment Act, 1934, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that the proceedings of the said Board in connection with the said resolution and the said notice shall be valid to all intents and purposes as though—

- (a) The public notice under subsection two of section nine of the said Act had stated the place fixed for the holding of the meeting to confirm the said resolution;
- (b) A copy of the said Order had been forwarded together with the notice given by the said Board under clause six of the said Order;

and that neither the said proceedings nor any new securities issued by the said Board shall hereafter be questioned in any Court on the ground of any such irregularity, defect, invalidity, or omission aforesaid.
