At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of August, 1935.

Present:

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And whereas a Treaty was signed on the 3rd day of December, 1873, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His late Majesty the Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals which Treaty was amended by a Declaration signed on the 26th day of June, 1901:

And whereas the said Treaty and Declaration were duly ratified:

And whereas under the provisions of Article 3 of the Supplementary Convention signed on the 29th day of October, 1934, between His Majesty and the Federal President of Austria for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, the terms whereof were recited in the Austrian (Extradition) Order in Council, 1935, and are as follows:—

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India; and the Federal President of Austria,

Desiring to make further provision for the reciprocal extradition of fugitive criminals, have resolved to conclude a Supplementary Convention to this end, and for this purpose have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India:

For Great Britain and Northern Ireland:

Sir Walford Selby, K.C.M.G., C.B., C.V.O., His Envoy

Article 3.

The High Contracting Parties agree that His Majesty the King may accede to the present Convention in respect of any other Member of the British Commonwealth of Nations, whose Government may desire that such accession be effected by a notice given to that effect by the appropriate diplomatic representative of His Majesty at Vienna. From the date that such notice comes into force the amendment set forth in Article 1 shall apply to extradition proceedings between Austria on the one hand and, on the other, the territory of the Member of the Commonwealth concerned.
