

(e) Issues of shares or other capital flotations for any public authority, person, or corporation in Italian territory, and subscriptions to such issues of shares or capital flotations in Italy or elsewhere.

3. The Minister of Finance, or such other person as he from time to time appoints as aforesaid, may grant his permission to any remittance under the last preceding clause if he is satisfied that the remittance is to be made for humanitarian purposes or to a religious institution.

4. (1) No banker or other person shall be a party to the sending of any remittance to which this clause applies out of New Zealand by or on behalf of any person resident in New Zealand, except in pursuance of a written statement made by that person or his agent setting forth the purpose for which the remittance is intended.

(2) This clause applies to—

(a) Remittances to or for any public authority, person, or corporation in Italian territory;

(b) Remittances which the Minister of Finance, or such other person as he from time to time appoints as aforesaid, has reason to believe will be in contravention of these regulations and in respect of which he requires a written statement to be made in accordance with this clause.

5. Every person who commits any breach of these regulations, or who makes any written statement as aforesaid which is false or misleading in any particular, or who makes any false or misleading representation to the Minister of Finance or to any person appointed by him as aforesaid for the purpose of obtaining his permission under these regulations, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable under the League of Nations Sanctions (Enforcement in New Zealand) Act, 1935, accordingly.

6. In these regulations the expression "person resident in New Zealand" includes any company or other body corporate which is incorporated in New Zealand, or which, wherever incorporated, carries on business in New Zealand.

7. Every reference in these regulations to the sending of a remittance out of New Zealand shall be deemed to include a reference to placing money in New Zealand at the disposal of a person not resident in New Zealand.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations under the League of Nations Sanctions (Enforcement in New Zealand) Act, 1935.—(C. No. 142.)

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 25th day of October, 1935.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the League of Nations Sanctions (Enforcement in New Zealand) Act, 1935, the Governor-General in Council, for the purpose of enabling the Dominion of New Zealand to fulfil its obligations under Article 16 of the Covenant of the League of Nations, may by Order in Council make all such regulations as he from time to time thinks necessary: And whereas it is considered necessary to make special regulations in relation to the exportation of goods from New Zealand:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by the League of Nations Sanctions (Enforcement in New Zealand) Act, 1935, doth hereby make the following regulations, and with the like advice and consent doth hereby declare that the said regulations shall come into force on the twenty-sixth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the League of Nations Sanctions (Exportation of Goods) Regulations, 1935.

2. The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, prohibit the exportation from New Zealand of any goods being goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in fulfilment of the obligations of the Dominion of New Zealand as a member of the League of Nations.

3. The powers hereinbefore conferred upon the Governor-General in Council shall extend to authorize the prohibition of the exportation of goods either generally or to any specified place or person and either absolutely or so as to allow of the exportation of the goods subject to any conditions or restrictions.

4. All the provisions of the Customs Acts with respect to prohibited exports shall extend and apply with respect to goods the exportation of which is prohibited under these regulations save and except the provisions of subsection (5) of section 46 and subsection (4) of section 47 of the Customs Act, 1913.

5. Collectors of Customs and other officers of Customs shall not permit to be laden on board any exporting ship any goods the exportation of which has been prohibited under these regulations.

6. The master of a ship shall not permit to be laden in that ship any goods the exportation of which is prohibited under these regulations.

7. Collectors of Customs shall withhold the clearance of any ship so long as there are on board thereof any goods the exportation of which has been prohibited under these regulations.

8. The term "Collector of Customs" as used in these regulations has the same meaning as in the Customs Act, 1913.
