

Radio Amendment (Radio-dealers) Regulations, 1935.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 27th day of January, 1936.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Radio Amendment (Radio-dealers) Regulations, 1935.

2. These regulations shall be read together with and be deemed to form part of the Radio Regulations, 1932 (hereinafter called "the principal regulations").

3. These regulations shall come into force on the date of their publication in the New Zealand Gazette.

4. Regulation 190 of the principal regulations is revoked, and the following substituted :—

"190. Radio-dealers' licenses shall be divided into five classes, to be distinguished as Class I, Class II, Class III, Class IV, and Class V."

5. Regulation 191 of the principal regulations is revoked, and the following substituted :—

"191. (1) Every license of Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class V shall be issued to some person in respect of a fixed place of business.

"(2) Every license issued to a person in respect of a fixed place of business situate within ten miles by the nearest practicable route of the Chief Post Office at Auckland, Christchurch, or Dunedin, or the General Post Office at Wellington, shall be a license of Class I or Class V, as the case may require.

"(3) Every license issued to a person in respect of a fixed place of business situate elsewhere than as described above shall be a license of Class II or Class V, as the case may require."

6. Regulation 192 of the principal regulations is revoked, and the following substituted :—

"192. (1) A license of Class I, Class II, or Class V shall be issued and be available in respect only of one fixed place of business.

"(2) Any person seeking to carry on the business of a radio-dealer at more than one fixed place of business shall obtain an additional license of Class I, Class II, or Class V, as the case may require, in respect of every additional fixed place of business besides the first."

7. The principal regulations are amended by inserting therein after Regulation 197 the following additional regulation :—

"197A. (1) A license of Class V may be issued to any person engaged in the repair and servicing of radio apparatus.

"(2) A license of Class V shall entitle the holder to sell, offer for sale, and have in his possession for sale in the way of his business apparatus designed and intended for use in connection with wireless-telegraphy, but only in the maintenance and repairing of radio apparatus, such maintenance and repair being carried out by the license-holder."

8. Regulation 204 of the principal regulations is revoked, and the following substituted :—

"204. (1) The fixed place of business stated in any license of Class I, Class II, or Class V may, on the application of the licensee made to a Radio Inspector, be altered at any time during the currency of the license to another such place within the borough, county, or town district not forming part of a county (as the case may be) in which the original place of business is situated, by memorandum to that effect endorsed thereon and signed by the Minister.
