And whereas a treaty was signed on the 26th day of November, 1880, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the Swiss Federal Council for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which treaty was amended by a Convention signed on the 29th day of June, 1904:

And whereas the said treaty and Convention were duly ratified.

And whereas under the provisions of Article 3 of the Supplementary Convention signed on the 19th day of December, 1934, between His Majesty and the Swiss Federal Council for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, the terms whereof were recited in the Switzerland (Extradition) Order in Council, 1935, and are as follows:—

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, and the Swiss Federal Council, desiring to make further provision for the reciprocal extradition of fugitive criminals, have resolved to conclude a Supplementary Convention to this end, and for this purpose have appointed as their plenipotentiaries—

For Great Britain and Northern Ireland—

Article 3.

The High Contracting Parties agree that His Majesty the King may accede to the present Convention in respect of any other member of the British Commonwealth of Nations whose Government may desire that such accession be effected, by a notice given to that effect by the appropriate diplomatic representative of His Majesty at Berne. From the date that such notice comes into effect the amendment set forth in Article 1 shall apply to extradition proceedings between Switzerland on the one hand and the territory of the member of the Commonwealth concerned on the other hand.
