

Herd-testing Regulations, 1936.—(Notice No. Ag. 3365.)

GALWAY, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 18th day of February, 1936.

Present:

THE HON. M. J. SAVAGE PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Agriculture (Emergency Powers) Act, 1934, and for the purpose of securing the effective conduct of the dairy industry, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Herd-testing Regulations, 1936.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the date of the publication hereof in the Gazette.

(3) In these regulations, unless inconsistent with the context,—

“Board” means the New Zealand Dairy Board referred to in section 10 of the Agriculture (Emergency Powers) Act, 1934:

“Group herd-testing” means the operation of testing substantially the whole of the milch-cows in any two or more herds the property of different persons for the purpose of recording the milk and milk solids production of individual cows within the herds.

2. The Board shall have authority to regulate and control—

(a) The conduct of group herd-testing, and, in particular, such methods of group herd-testing as have heretofore been regulated and controlled by the Dominion Group Herd-testing Federation, Incorporated; and

(b) The branding or marking of stock for the purpose of identifying permanently such stock as being of a standard of merit fixed under a group herd-testing system, and, in particular, the system of branding or marking of stock instituted and heretofore controlled by the said Federation.

3. For the purpose of such regulation and control, the Board may employ Inspectors, computers, clerks, and other servants, and may enter into contracts with individuals and corporate bodies undertaking or concerned in group herd-testing.

4. The power conferred on the Director-General of the Department of Agriculture by section 3 of the Stock Amendment Act, 1927, to register in the name of any incorporated society whose object or one of whose objects is the improvement of stock, one or more brands or marks as a standard mark or marks to be used on stock, being stock to which any system of group herd-testing applies or is associated, shall be exercisable only with the prior approval of the Board.
