

of Regulations 6 and 7 hereof shall apply to any person so appointed, and the fact that any person so appointed is so acting shall be conclusive proof that an event has happened sufficient to authorize him so to act.

11. At any meeting of the trustees the chairman hereinbefore designated (or his substitute) and one other trustee (or his substitute) shall form a quorum, and on all occasions the chairman hereinbefore designated (or his substitute) and one other trustee (or his substitute) shall be capable of exercising all the powers of the trustees.

12. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the trustees shall regulate their own procedure and may adopt and from time to time revoke standing orders for that purpose.

VESTING AND INVESTMENT OF FUND.

13. The fund shall be vested in the trustees for the time being, and the trustees for the time being shall be the agents of any previous trustee his executors and administrators for the purpose of executing in his or their names all documents necessary so to vest at any time the fund and any investments thereof.

14. The moneys of the fund shall be invested by deposit in the Post Office Savings-bank or such other bank or in such other securities for the time being authorized by law for the investment of trust moneys as may from time to time be approved by the Minister.

15. The trustees shall keep such books and accounts as may be directed by the Director-General of the Post and Telegraph Department, and shall as soon as may be after the 31st day of March in each year submit to the Director-General a statement of the accounts of the fund for the then preceding year (or, in the case of the first of such statements, for the period from the 1st day of December, 1935, to the 31st day of March, 1936).

APPLICATION OF FUND.

16. The fund shall be applied as hereinafter provided for the benefit of officers who are absent from duty on approved sick-leave without salary.

17. Every such officer shall, subject as hereinafter provided, receive payment from the fund during the period of his absence from duty on approved sick-leave without salary at the rate of half his salary as hereinbefore defined.

18. Nevertheless, the trustees may in their discretion decline to make a payment to any officer or may increase the payment to more than half his salary or reduce the payment to less than half his salary.

19. The trustees may in their discretion make payments from the fund to any officer who is absent from duty on approved sick-leave on half salary.

20. In lieu of making to an officer any payment hereinbefore authorized, the trustees may make such payment or any portion thereof to any person who is in the opinion of the trustees a dependant of such officer.

21. Nevertheless, in no case shall the total payment to or for the benefit of any officer by way of salary and/or payment from the fund exceed the normal salary payment of that officer.

22. In no case shall any payment to an officer be made from the fund in respect of a period of absence from duty prior to the 1st day of December, 1935.
