

(4) A bursar not in receipt of boarding allowance who shows to the satisfaction of the Director that he is obliged to travel more than four miles each way in order to attend the classes in his approved course of study shall be entitled to a refund not exceeding £10 in any year of his actual travelling-expenses so incurred.

(5) Any allowance approved under this regulation shall be payable by the Director in equal instalments at the end of each term upon receipt from the Principal of a report showing that the attendance, progress, diligence, and conduct of the bursar during the term have been satisfactory.

8. (1) A bursar shall regularly attend the classes in his approved course of study, make progress in the work of such course to the satisfaction of the Principal and the Director, and pass a major portion of the test allotted to the particular year of such course.

(2) On receipt from the Principal of an unfavourable report on the attendance, progress, diligence, or conduct of a bursar the Director may at any time determine the bursary.

(3) Except with the approval of the Director, a bursar shall not during the currency of the bursary engage in any employment or hold any position of emolument or profit.

9. All communications by a bursar on matters relating to the bursary shall be addressed to the Principal, who may make such recommendations to the Director on the subject-matter of any communication as he thinks fit.

10. The Director may, with the approval of the Minister of Education, relax the provisions of clause 1 of these regulations whenever it may appear that the purpose of the bursary cannot be effected otherwise than by such relaxation.
