WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1936.

Intimating His Majesty's Assent to the Shipping and Seamen (Safety and Load-line Conventions) Act, 1935, and fixing Date of coming into Operation.

[L.S.] GALWAY, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the Constitution Act it is provided that no Bill specially reserved for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon shall have any force or authority in New Zealand until the Governor-General shall signify either by speech or message to the Legislative Council and the House of Representatives, or by Proclamation, that such Bill has been laid before His Majesty in Council, and that His Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same:

And whereas a certain Bill intituled "An Act to make Provision for giving Effect in New Zealand to certain International Conventions relating to Shipping," the Short Title of which is "The Shipping and Seamen (Safety and Load-line Conventions) Act, 1935" (hereinafter called "the said Bill"), was passed by the Legislative Council and the House of Representatives, and was presented for His Majesty's assent to the Governor-General, and was reserved for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon:

And whereas by the said Bill it is provided that the same shall come into operation on the day on which His Majesty's assent thereto is notified by the Governor-General by Proclamation published in the Gazette, or on such later date (being not later than three months after the date of publication of the Proclamation as aforesaid) as is specified in that behalf in the Proclamation:

Now, therefore, I, George Vere Arundell, Viscount Galway, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution Act, do by this Proclamation signify and proclaim to all whom it may concern that the said Bill has been laid before His Majesty in Council, and that His Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same, and in pursuance of the provisions of the said Bill I do further declare and proclaim that the same shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, and issued under the Seal of that Dominion, this 28th day of April, 1936.

P. FRASER, Minister of Marine.
