Amending Regulations under the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Act, 1908.—Amendment No. 16.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 3rd day of June, 1936.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. M. J. SAVAGE PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make for the purposes of the said Act the following regulations in amendment of the regulations under the said Act made on the twenty-seventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and gazetted on the thirtieth day of July then instant (hereinafter called "the principal regulations").

REGULATIONS.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in clause 9 of the principal regulations, safety fuse shall not be imported into New Zealand unless the person importing such safety fuse shall hold an importation license.

2. The definition of the term "safety fuse" contained in class 6 of clause 8 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by the addition of the following words: "and which under all conditions of use burns at an even rate of 90 seconds per yard: Provided, nevertheless, that the Chief Inspector may approve the importation of safety fuse the variation in the rate of burning of which from the standard rate set out above does not exceed ten per cent."

3. In order to determine the fee payable under the principal regulations in respect of any license to import safety fuse, the weight of explosive in such fuse shall be calculated on the basis of 1 lb. of explosive for each three hundred feet of fuse.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
