

THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1936.

Statutory Regulations, 1936-37.

Under the Regulations Act, 1936, statutory regulations of general legislative force are (subject to special exceptions) no longer to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, but will, for greater public convenience, be issued as a separate series by the Government Printer.

It is recognized that the written law is not contained in the statute-book alone. The regulations made under authority of Acts of Parliament have themselves the force of law, and in many cases no statement of the law is complete that overlooks the regulations for the time being in force. Many persons are more intimately concerned with the details of the regulations than with the more general provisions of the statutes.

Regulations will be available under any one or more of the following arrangements:—

- (i) All regulations serially as issued.
- (ii) In periodical bound volumes, as completed.
- (iii) All regulations serially as issued and a periodical bound volume as in (i) and (ii) above on a combined subscription basis.
- (iv) Separate regulations, as ordered.

All regulations will be forwarded to subscribers promptly on the day following notification of the making thereof in the Gazette, suitably punched for interim filing. A binder for filing the punched regulations will be available at an early date.

The separate price of each set of regulations will appear thereon, facilitating the purchase of extra copies.

There will be issued monthly a brief cumulative index, and on completion of each volume a title-page, table of contents, index, table of statutes, and table of previous regulations revoked or amended by the year's regulations.

The Act applies to all regulations made on or after 1st August, 1936. It is proposed, therefore, that the first period of subscription and the first periodical volume should be for the rest of 1936 and the whole of 1937.

- The following are the rates fixed for the period 1936-37:—
- (a) One complete set of regulations to be issued as available; £1 10s., post free.
  - (b) One complete set of regulations to be issued as available and bound volume in full buckram, size royal octavo; combined subscription £2 2s., post free.
  - (c) Extra copies of regulations at published prices.
  - (d) Loose-leaf binder; 6s. 6d., post free.

G. H. LONEY,
Government Printer.
