Licensing James Andrews, Thomson Bruce, Joseph Foster, and Thomas Isbister (as Trustees for the Fishermen in the District) to use and occupy a Part of the Foreshore at Paremata as a Site for the Cleaning and Painting of Fishing-boats.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 26th day of April, 1938.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Harbours Act, 1923, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby license and permit James Andrews, Thomson Bruce, Joseph Foster, and Thomas Isbister, all of Paremata, as trustees for the fishermen in the district (hereinafter called "the trustees"), to use and occupy all those parts of the foreshore at Paremata, as shown on plan marked M.D. 5820, approved on the eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and deposited in the office of the Marine Department at Wellington for the purpose of the use of the site for the cleaning and painting of fishing-boats, such license to be held and enjoyed by the trustees upon and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

- In these conditions the terms—
 - "Foreshore" means such parts of the bed, shore, or banks of a tidal water as are covered and uncovered by the flow and ebb of the tide at ordinary spring tides;
 - "Low-water mark" means low-water mark at ordinary spring tides;
 - "Minister" means the Minister of Marine as defined by the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, and includes any officer, person, or authority acting by or under the direction of such Minister.
- The concessions and privileges conferred by this Order in Council shall extend and apply only to that part of the foreshore as shown on plan M.D. 5820.
- In consideration of the concessions and privileges granted by this Order in Council the trustees shall, on being supplied with a copy thereof, pay to the Minister an annual rental of 1s. payable on demand.
- The rights, powers, and privileges conferred by this Order in Council shall continue in force for fourteen years from the 8th day of April, 1938, unless in the meantime such rights, powers, and privileges shall be altered, modified, or revoked by competent authority; and the trustees shall not assign, charge, or part with any such right, power, or privilege without the previous written consent of the Minister first obtained.
- His Majesty or the Governor-General, and all officers in the Government service acting in the execution of their duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress into, through, and out of the said site without payment.
- Nothing herein contained shall authorize the trustees to do or cause to be done anything repugnant to or inconsistent with any law relating to the Customs, or any regulation of the Minister of Customs, or with any provisions of the Harbours Act, 1923, or its amendments, or any regulations made thereunder, and that are now or may hereafter be in force.
- The trustees shall appoint all officers and servants required for the working and management of the said site.
- The said rights, powers, and privileges may be at any time resumed by the Governor-General without payment of any compensation whatever, on giving to the trustees
