The Board of Trade (Sugar-price) Regulations 1939.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 14th day of October, 1939.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Board of Trade Act, 1919, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby, on the recommendation of the Minister of Industries and Commerce, make the following Board of Trade Regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Board of Trade (Sugar-price) Regulations 1939.
2. These regulations shall come into force on the day following notification in the Gazette of the making thereof.
3. Nothing in these regulations shall apply to the sale or purchase of sugar by any person in a quantity of less than 1 lb., or to the sale of sugar to a manufacturer, distributor, or retail storekeeper, as these terms are respectively defined in regulation 4 hereof, in a quantity of less than half a ton.
4. The maximum prices at which any person may sell sugar manufactured in New Zealand and being of the grade commercially known as "1A Sugar" for delivery at any of the places named in the Schedule hereto shall be the respective prices set out in the said Schedule according to whether the sale is for delivery in the districts recognized by the trade as the Auckland Sugar District or the Southern Sugar District, respectively, and whether the sale is—

- (a) To a consumer—that is to say, a person purchasing for his own use and not for the purposes of resale and not being one of the persons described in any of the following paragraphs of this regulation; or
- (b) To a retail storekeeper—that is to say, a person purchasing solely for resale to consumers; or
- (c) To a distributor—that is to say, a duly recognized agent of a sugar manufacturer purchasing for resale to retail storekeepers, bakers, sugar boilers, or other process-users of sugar; or
- (d) To a manufacturer—that is to say, a person purchasing under contract from a sugar manufacturer, sugar for use in manufacturing processes in his factory.

5. The maximum prices at which any such sugar as aforesaid may be sold to a consumer for cash over the counter at places other than those mentioned in the said Schedule shall be not more than the respective prices set out in the said Schedule, increased by the amount of any additional freight and charges incurred in the delivery of the sugar from the place of purchase to the place of sale.

6. The prices hereinbefore referred to are for a sale for cash of sugar in packages in accordance with the customary usage of the trade.

7. Nothing contained in these regulations shall be deemed to forbid the making or carrying-out of a contract for the sale of any such sugar as aforesaid at a price exceeding the respective prices hereinbefore referred to if such sale is made subject to the condition that if payment of the price is made by prompt cash in accordance with the customary usage of trade in the place of delivery the price shall be reduced to the respective net cash price hereinbefore referred to.
