The Tramways Industry Labour Legislation Modification Order 1943.

IN pursuance of the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, the Minister of Labour doth hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Tramways Industry Labour Legislation Modification Order 1943.

2. This Order applies to all workers who are bound by awards and industrial agreements to which the New Zealand Tramways Authorities Employees' Industrial Union of Workers is a party and to the employers of such workers.

3. The provisions of the awards and industrial agreements referred to in clause 2 hereof are hereby modified to the extent that the said workers or any of them may be required to work on an additional day in any week subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(1) Any worker required in pursuance of this Order to work in any week on a day which except for the provisions of this Order would not be a working-day for such worker, shall be given a minimum of eight hours work, and shall be paid for all time worked on such day at the rate of time and a half. In all other respects the conditions of the relevant award or industrial agreement shall apply:

(2) Sunday shall not be regarded as an additional day under this Order.

4. This Order shall come into effect on the day of the date hereof.

5. The Tramways Industry Labour Legislation Modification Order 1942,* is revoked.

Dated at Wellington, this 21st day of April, 1943.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.
