Order No. 2 (1962) of the Trade Practices and Prices Commission

In the matter of the Trade Practices Act 1958 and in the matter of an inquiry concerning Auckland Electrical Wholesalers' Association, New Zealand Electrical Wholesalers' Federation, and district affiliated Associations.

WHEREAS the Trade Practices and Prices Commission has, pursuant to section 18 of the Trade Practices Act 1958, conducted an inquiry into the agreements and arrangements of the Auckland Electrical Wholesalers' Association, New Zealand Electrical Wholesalers' Federation (hereinafter called "the Federation"), and district affiliated Associations (hereinafter called "the Associations").

And whereas, prior to the said inquiry, the Examiner of Trade Practices and Prices presented to the Commission a report and replies thereto were filed by the Federation and the Associations.

And whereas, in the report of the Examiner, the following trade practices were alleged namely:

1. An agreement or arrangement to exclude a company namely, Appliance Dealers Association Ltd., from membership of the Auckland Electrical Wholesalers' Association coming substantially within section 19 (2) (n) of the Act.

2. An agreement or arrangement by members of the Federation and the Associations not to buy from any manufacturer goods of an identical type or brand to those being supplied to cooperative wholesaling firms not members of the Associations coming substantially within section 19 (2) (g) of the Act.

3. An agreement or arrangement to restrict the purchase of goods by members of the Federation or the Associations to manufacturers who dealt only with members of the Federation or the Associations coming substantially within section 19 (2) (a) of the Act.

And whereas, in the replies of the Federation and the Associations, the existence of each and every one of such practices was denied.

And whereas the Commission heard evidence adduced by the Examiner and the Federation and the Associations and the New Zealand Electrical Cooperative Society Ltd. and heard Mr Savage of Counsel for the Examiner and Mr Smith of Counsel for the Federation and the Associations and Mr McNeil of Counsel for the New Zealand Electrical Cooperative Society Ltd.

And whereas Mr Smith subsequently informed the Commission that the Federation and the Associations undertook to pass the resolution referred to in paragraph 3 (b) of this order.

Now, therefore, the Trade Practices and Prices Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. That no order be made with respect to the trade practices alleged to exist under section 19 (2) (n).

2. That no order be made with respect to the trade practices alleged to exist under section 19 (2) (g).

3. That with respect to the trade practices alleged to exist under section 19 (2) (a) the Federation and the Associations and each of them are hereby ordered:

(a) Not to enter into any agreement or arrangement to restrict the class of manufacturers from whom members of the Federation or of the Associations purchase goods and in particular not to enter into any agreement or arrangement—

(i) To refuse to purchase goods or limit the purchase of goods from manufacturers who supply goods to persons other than members of the Federation or the Associations; and

(ii) To fix the terms upon which goods shall be sold by manufacturers to persons other than members of the Federation and the Associations.

(b) To pass the following resolution not later than the 15th day of February 1963:

"Pursuant to the Order of the Trade Practices and Prices Commission, dated the 7th day of December 1962, it is hereby resolved that there are hereby rescinded each and every resolution and recommendation which is or may be construed as being an agreement or arrangement within the meaning of the Trade Practices Act 1958 and is designed to achieve joint action by electrical wholesalers in—

(i) Refusing to purchase goods or limit the purchase of goods from manufacturers who supply goods to persons other than members of the Federation or the Associations; and

(ii) In fixing the terms upon which goods shall be sold by manufacturers to persons other than members of the Federation and the Associations.

And it is hereby further resolved that a copy of the resolution be forwarded forthwith to all members and to the Examiner of Trade Practices and Prices."

Dated at Wellington this 7th day of December 1962.

The seal of the Trade Practices and Prices Commission was affixed hereto in the presence of—
