

Access to Parts of a Nature Reserve Without a Permit

The Regional Conservator of the Department of Conservation, pursuant to a delegation from the Minister of Conservation, hereby declares, pursuant to section 57 (2) of the Reserves Act 1977, that access to the parts of the Taiaroa Head Nature Reserve described in the First and Second Schedules hereto, is permitted without a permit between the hours of 9 a.m. and sundown. This declaration has effect throughout each year in respect of the land in the First Schedule but only between 24 November and 16 September in respect of the land in the Second Schedule. This declaration is subject to the following conditions:

1. This notice shall apply only to members of tour parties conducted by Otago Peninsula Trust and authorised employees of the Trust conducting those parties.

2. Each member of such a tour party and each such authorised employee shall be given a written notice in the following form before entering the parts of the reserve described herein:

"Please take note— access within the Taiaroa Head Nature Reserve is strictly controlled in the interests of wildlife conservation. You must remain within the area that will be indicated by your guide. You must follow the instructions of your guide at all times while in the reserve. No smoking is permitted within the reserve. Entry to the reserve is at the visitor's own risk and no liability in respect of property damage or personal injury is accepted by the reserve administrators."
