

HOW NZLII BEGAN

NZLII stands for “the New Zealand legal Information Institute” which is operated by the Faculty of Law at the University of Otago in partnership with AustLII and with the support of the New Zealand Law Foundation.

It began in 2004 and its sole aim is to provide free public access online to New Zealand legal decisions and legislation.

NZLII currently has 51 separate databases and receives over 5000 visits per day.

NZLII relies on the support of its University volunteers, the New Zealand Law Foundation for particular projects and the cooperation of generators of legislation, decisions and commentary.

It welcomes other stakeholders.

Please get in touch at feedback@nzlii.org if you can:

- suggest a data source
- help with a donation to the costs of maintaining the service
- help in any other way.
